This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE

JANE ALDRICH MOORE was born at New-York on the Thirty-first of March, Eighteen hundred and fifty-three.

She was married to John Godfrey Moore on the Nineteenth of March, Eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and her long, patient, and heroic struggle against insidious and inexorable disease terminated on the Seventeenth of February, Eighteen hundred and ninety.

She was a woman of remarkable intellectual force, and her gifts were developed by self-imposed tasks of study rarely undertaken by those of her social accomplishments and surroundings.

Though fettered by delicate and gradually failing health, which made the later years of her life a physical martyrdom, her ambition never faltered, and her courage never failed.

In her conversational powers, in her correspondence, in the journals that recorded the events of her daily life and described the scenes and incidents of travel, there gleamed evidences of literary taste and skill, which, had her strength permitted, might have won for her an honorable place among the writers whose sympathies she shared, and whose thoughts none more thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated.

In wit or in wisdom, in philosophy or in poetry, in history or in fiction, her refinement of culture and breadth of intelligence found equal pleasure and profit.

There was no philosophy too profound, and there was no art too ethereal to elude her grasp.

No school of science, no field of speculation failed to find a sympathetic interest in the mind of a woman whose craving for knowledge surpassed and suppressed all other passions.

Her impressions were always as distinct, and her mental vision was always as clear, as her taste was pure and delicate.

Without impairing her strong and precise individuality, she absorbed the thoughts and learning of others as a plant absorbs sunshine and moisture, and her fertile mind bore flowers and fruits whose perfume and flavor made her the most attractive to those who knew her best, and had the privilege of her companionship.

The library to which this little volume is an index is the monument she unconsciously erected to her own memory.

It illustrates her taste and her intelligence, and furnishes a key to the characteristics which were so strongly developed in her later years.

In the possession of these books she found her greatest pleasure.

They refreshed her when she was weary; soothed her when she was sad; relieved her when perplexed, and were a comfort and a luxury for which she would have sacrificed any other.

WILLIAM E. CURTIS.

NAPOLEON. A Collection of various Letters and Documents signed by Napoleon Bonaparte, including:

L. S. "Bonaparte," dated 1798, during his contemplated invasion of England. This specimen has a fine engraved heading of the figure of Liberty, and bears the inscription, "Bonaparte, Général en Chef de l'Armée d'Angleterre."

L. S. "Bonaparte," and with seven words in his autograph, "Apprové envoy ay ministre de la Guerre," dated Dec. 2, 1799. This letter dates at one of the most important epochs of Napoleon's life, as a few weeks previously, on the famous 18 Brumaire, he caused himself to be named First Consul.

L. S., with one of his most curious ciphers, dated from Fontainebleau, 1809. This document, signed at the commencement of the declining fortunes of the Emperor, is an extraordinary example of his caligraphy.

Also, an important and historical L. S. "Napoleon" to Marshal Marmont, dated Nov. 13, 1805. Written before entering Moravia and the Battle of Austerlitz, directing Marmont to occupy the Tyrol, and not to be menaced in the south by the Archduke Charles. The Emperor says:

"I entered Vienna this morning, and have seized the bridge on the Danube, where I found 60 pieces of field artillery. The Russian Army has retired to Stein, and passed to the left of the Danube. There has been a lively skirmish with Marshal Mortier's Corps at Diernstein, who although he has only 4,000 men held himself against 250,000 Russians, and took 4 flags. Masséna ought to be at Vicene, Ney at Innsbrück," etc., and urges Marmont to watch the Tyrol.

Also, a curious MS., upward of 40 pages, folio, containing applications from his officers for advancement, and with a large number of marginal notes in the autograph of the Emperor.

Also, a fine L. S. from Joachim Murat, King of Naples, addressed to Napoleon, congratulating him on his marriage with Marie Louise. With fine engraved portrait of the Emperor by David. Brilliant impression.

In 1 vol. folio, morocco extra, gilt edges, in solander case.

The list of officers, with Napoleon's comments, is a very curious and interesting document.

THACKERAY.

A Collection of First Editions of the Works of William Makepeace Thackeray, including a collection of Thackerayana.

1. The Snob: A Literary and Scientific Journal. Not "Conducted by Members of the University." "Tityre, tu patulæ recubans sub tegmine fagi. Sylvestrem?" Virgil. Cambridge: Published by W. H. Smith, Rose Crescent, 1829. 12mo. Collation, pp. ix–pp. 164.—The Gownsman, (formerly called) "The Snob," A Literary and Scientific Journal, now conducted by Members of the University. "Sir, here is newly come to court Laertes; believe me, an absolute gentleman; full of most excellent differences." Hamlet. Vol. 2. Cambridge: Published by W. H. Smith, Rose Crescent, and sold by Simpkin and Marshall, London, and may be had of all booksellers; 1830. 12mo. Collation: pp. ix–pp. 138. Together, 2 vols., full crushed levant morocco, uncut, by Zaehnsdorf, with pull-off morocco case.

"The Snob" contains eleven numbers in the original covers (all that were issued), and "The Gownsman" seventeen (all that were issued). These were the two periodicals which Thackeray edited, or rather wrote, during his residence in Cambridge.

2. Flore et Zephyr. Ballet Mythologique Dedié à [here follows a sketch of a ballet-girl] par Théophile Wagstaff. 4to, in original wrapper, with levant pull-off case. London, published by J. Mitchell. 1836. À Paris, Rittner & Gotapil, n. d.

A series of nine plates on India paper, containing that referred to above on the wrapper which forms the title-page. The plates were drawn by Thackeray and signed with the pseudonym of Théophile Wagstaff, and lithographed by Edward Morton. Each plate bears Thackeray's monogram, W.T. Contains autograph letter of Thackeray relating to this book, and a portrait of Thackeray drawn by himself in 1834.

3. The Comic Almanack for 1839. An Ephemeris in Jest and Earnest, containing "All Things fitting for such a Work." Adorned with a dozen of "Righte Merrie" Cuts pertaining to the Months, and an Hieroglyphic, by George Cruikshank. Foolscap 8vo, half crushed levant morocco extra, gilt top, uncut edges, by Bradstreet. London, Charles Tilt. 1839.

This is included here for the reason that it contains the complete story of "Stubbs's Calendar, or the Fatal Books."

4. The Comic Almanack for 1840. An Ephemeris in Jest and Earnest, containing "All Things fitting for such a Work." By Rigdum Funnidos, Gent. Adorned with a Dozen "Righte Merrie" Cuts pertaining to the Months, and an Hieroglyphic, by George Cruikshank. Fools-cap 8vo, half crushed levant morocco extra, gilt top, uncut edges, by Bradstreet. London, Charles Tilt, 1840.

Contains another complete story by Thackeray, "Barber Cox and the Cutting of his Comb." This and the preceding number are interesting as being the only stories by Thackeray illustrated by George Cruikshank.

5. The Paris Sketch Book, by Mr. Titmarsh, with numerous designs by the author on copper and wood. 2 vols., post 8vo, full crushed levant morocco extra, gilt tops, uncut edges, by Alfred Matthews. London, John Macrone, 1840.

6. An Essay on the Genius of George Cruikshank. With numerous illustrations of his works. (From the "Westminster Review," No. LXVI.) With additional etching. 8vo, crushed levant morocco extra, by Bradstreet. London, Henry Hooper, 1840.

First printed in "Westminster Review" and immediately published in book form with an additional plate and a list of Cruikshank's works.

7. Comic Tales and Sketches. Edited and illustrated by Mr. Michael Angelo Titmarsh, author of "The Paris Sketch Book," etc. 2 vols., post 8vo, tree calf extra, gilt tops, uncut edges. London, Hugh Cunningham, 1841.

8. The Second Funeral of Napoleon, in three Letters to Miss Smith of London; and the Chronicle of the Drum. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. Square foolscap 8vo, crushed levant morocco extra, by Stikeman. London, Hugh Cunningham, 1841.

This copy has the cover bound in, which is important, as it has on it an illustration by Thackeray which does not appear elsewhere.

9. The Irish Sketch Book. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. With numerous engravings on wood, drawn by the author. 2 vols., post 8vo, full crushed levant morocco extra, gilt tops, uncut edges, by Bradstreet. London, Chapman & Hall, 1843.

This was a presentation copy from the author, with his nom de plume, Titmarsh, in autograph — an extremely rare signature.

10. Mrs. Perkins's Ball. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. [22 illustrations in colors.] Square 8vo, polished calf extra (cover bound in), by Rivière. London, Chapman & Hall, 1847.

11. Notes of a Journey from Cornhill to Cairo, by way of Lisbon, Athens, Constantinople and Jerusalem: Performed by the Peninsular and Oriental Company. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh, author of "The Irish Sketch Book." 8vo, half crushed levant morocco extra, gilt top, uncut edges, by Bradstreet. London, Chapman & Hall, 1846.

12. Vanity Fair. A Novel Without a Hero. By William Makepeace Thackeray. With illustrations on steel and wood by the author. 8vo, in the original parts as issued, and inclosed in a solander case. London, Bradbury & Evans, 1848.

On the wrapper is an illustration by Thackeray not found elsewhere. On page 336 will be found the famous portrait of the Marquis of Steyne, not found elsewhere, and suppressed in the next issue.

13. "Our Street." By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. [With 16 full-page illustrations by the author, in colors.] Square crown 8vo, full crushed levant morocco extra, gilt edges, by Alfred Matthews. London, Chapman & Hall, 1848.

14. The Book of Snobs. By W. M. Thackeray, author of "A Journey from Cornhill to Grand Cairo," of "Jeames's Diary" in "Punch," "Our Street," "Vanity Fair," etc., etc. Post 8vo, original paper wrapper, in solander case. London, "Punch" Office, 1848.

The paper wrapper has an illustration not to be found elsewhere.

15. The History of Pendennis. His Fortunes and Misfortunes; His Friends and Greatest Enemy. By William Makepeace Thackeray. With illustrations on steel and wood by the author. 2 vols., 8vo, half crushed levant morocco extra, by Alfred Matthews. London, Bradbury & Evans, 1849.

16. Doctor Birch and his Young Friends. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. [With 16 illustrations in colors by the author.] Square crown 8vo, full crushed levant morocco extra, by Stikeman. London, Chapman & Hall, 1849.

17. The History of Samuel Titmarsh and the Great Hoggarty Diamond. [With 10 illustrations by the author.] Square crown 8vo, full crushed levant morocco (cover bound in), by Bradstreet. London, Bradbury & Evans, 1849.

The original cover has an illustration on it not repeated in the book.

18. Rebecca and Rowena. A Romance upon Romance. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. With illustrations by Richard Doyle. Square crown 8vo (cover bound in), by Alfred Matthews. London, Chapman & Hall, 1850.

The cover contains an illustration not repeated in the book.

19. Sketches after English Landscape Painters, by L. Marcy. With Short Notices by W. M. Thackeray. [20 Plates.] 4to, half levant morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bradstreet. London, David Bogue, n. d.

20. The Kickleburys on the Rhine. By Mr. M. A. Titmarsh. [With 15 illustrations in colors by the author.] Square crown 8vo, full crushed levant morocco extra, by Alfred Matthews. London, Smith, Elder & Co., 1850.

In this copy the celebrated "Essay on Thunder and Small Beer," which appeared in the second edition, is inserted.

21. The History of Henry Esmond, Esq., a Colonel in the Service of Her Majesty Q. Anne. Written by Himself. 3 vols., post 8vo, half crushed levant morocco extra, gilt tops, uncut edges, by Tout. London, Smith, Elder & Co., 1852.

22. The English Humorists of the Eighteenth Century. A Series of Lectures delivered in England, Scotland, and the United States of America. Crown 8vo, half crushed levant morocco extra, gilt top, uncut edges, by Bradstreet. London, Smith, Elder & Co., 1853; Bombay, Smith, Taylor & Co., 1853.

23. The Newcomes. Memoirs of a Most Respectable Family. Edited by Arthur Pendennis, Esq. With illustrations on steel and wood by Richard Doyle. 2 vols., 8vo, half crushed levant morocco extra, gilt tops, uncut edges, by Alfred Matthews. London, Bradbury & Evans, 1854.

24. The Rose and the Ring; or, The History of Prince Giglio and Prince Bulbo. A Fireside Pantomime for Great and Small Children. By

Mr. M. A. Titmarsh, author of "The Kicklebury's on the Rhine," "Mrs. Perkins's Ball," etc. [With 8 full-page illustrations.] Square crown 8vo, crushed levant morocco extra, by Bradstreet. London, Smith, Elder & Co., 1855.

25. Miscellanies: Prose and Verse. 4 vols., crown 8vo, full crushed levant morocco extra, gilt tops, uncut edges, by Alfred Matthews. London, Bradbury & Evans, 1855.

The first collected edition of Thackeray's Miscellanies. Contents:

Vol. I. Ballads, The Book of Snobs, The Fatal Boots, Cox's Diary, The Tremendous Adventures of Major Gahagan.

Vol. II. Memoirs of Mr. C. J. Yellowplush, Diary of C. Jeames De La Pluche, Esq., Sketches and Travels in London, Novels by Eminent Hands, and Character Sketches.
